

President Emeritus

The Board of Directors recently reviewed its “Emeritus” award and confirmed its significant place in the PROBUS framework by adopting an official description that recognizes distinguished service of retired PROBUS Canada presidents and directors.

The Board of Directors feels the spirit and well-being of PROBUS Canada would be well served with the continued recognition of outstanding character and meritorious service in the advancement of PROBUS reminiscent of the late John R. Morris (President Emeritus 1999-2012)

PROBUS Canada is pleased to announce that for his outstanding excellence in carrying out the duties of president during the crucial building period following the presidency of John R. Morris where all the efforts of our early leaders had to be entrenched and given direction Reg Whynott is permitted to retain the title of president as President Emeritus.
