

Probus Club of Mercer Island - Today

Probus Mercer Island is a social club for retired and near-retired people who enjoy the opportunity to meet with new and old friends and to enjoy and benefit from hearing programs by guest speakers on topical subjects. Current membership of the Club is about 200, one of the largest in the United States, and typical attendance at one of our monthly meetings is about 60 to 80.

The club meets on the first Wednesday of each month from 10:30 am until noon. Meetings are held at the Mercer Island Presbyterian Church located at 3605 84th Ave SE. The speaker's presentations start at 11:00 am, and frequently, there are informal discussions that carry on after the conclusion at noon. In addition, the club periodically arranges field trips to places of general interest, such as Paul Allen's Flying Heritage Museum in Everett and we also have Spring and Holiday Season luncheons with entertainment.

Probus is self-directed and managed and, as such, offers volunteer opportunities. If you are looking for continued light challenges in retirement, your participation is welcome and valued.

You are invited to attend, to meet us and to experience the quality programs and warm friendships offered by our Club. If you would like more information call Jim Horn at 206 232-2347 or contact him online at jimhorn1@comcast.net.

We're looking forward to meeting you.
