You can tell a Probus member
You can tell her by her walk
You can tell a Probus member
You can tell her by her talk
You can tell her by her manner
By her gaiety and such
You can tell a Probus member
But you cannot tell her much

Tune- Take me out to the Ball

My Favorite Things- Julie Andrews^{by}, ^{for her} 69th Birthday

Maalox and nose drops and needles for Knitting,
Walkers and handrails and new dental fittings,
Bundles of magazines tied up in strings,
These are a few of my favorite things.

Hearing aids, cataracts repairs on glasses,
Polident, Fixodent, false teeth in glasses,
Pace makers, golf carts and porches with swings.
These are a few of my favorite things

When the pipes leak,
When the bones creak,
When the knees go bad
I simply remember my favorite things and then I don't feel so bad.

Hot tea and crumpets and corn pads for bunions.
No spicy hot food or food cooked with onions.
Bathrobes and heat pads and hot meals they bring.
These are a few of my favorite things.

Back pains, confused brains and no fear of sinning.
Thin bones and fractures and hair that is thinning.
And we wont mention our short shrunken frame.
When we remember our favorite things.

When the joints ache,
When the hips break,
When the eyes go dim.
